

We understand that the FCC is intending to vote in June on whether to allow more radio and television stations to be owned by fewer large corporations. We think this will severely limit the public from hearing varying views and it would be a disaster. Please vote no on this issue. The public airways belong to the public.